

We vote on the issues affecting our communities, like the economy and inflation, the environment reproductive health care, education, gun reform, immigration, and civil rights.

What about you?